

Self-Organized Learning in a Future Digital Environment

Targeted at Higher Education teachers, this event will work as a booster for the international community to promote diffusion and awareness about different technologies and methodologies to sustain usage of tools to empower and enhance responsible behaviours between learners and co-learners in monitoring advancements in academic careers with any means that the digital learning environment provides.

Date & Venue

December 3, 2024, from 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm, at the CLA 03 laboratory of the Marco Polo Center and online: <https://meet.google.com/xfi-gzzu-jwn>

Chaired and introduced by Stefano Lariccia (Sapienza-Università di Roma)

Agenda:

- Presentation of the We-Collab project and its objectives
- Comparative analysis of in-person and online learning methods based on biometric data

Speakers: Fernando Martínez de Carnero (Sapienza-Università di Roma), Gianluca Di Flumeri (Brainsigns) & Jesper Clement (Copenhagen Business School)

- Brainsigns explanatory video
- Test of Pre-recorded Video made for Online Classes

Round table: Edoardo Lampis (Lazio Innova), Mauro Draoli (AglD), Simona Perone (ISTAT), (A.R.I.P.T. Fo.R.P.), Nicola Vita (Confindustria), Natalia Candorcio Rodríguez (URJC), Igor Vaslav Vitale (Psychologist & International Trainer).

- Practical demonstration of the use of biometric technologies and learning analytics in the educational field

Moderator: Giovanni Toffoli

Round table: Carmen Bizzarri (UER), Luca Reitano (CNA), Alberto Hernando García-Cervigón (URJC), prof.ssa Sara Tropeano (Istituto San Paolo di Roma)

- Interactive discussion on how these innovations can contribute to university teaching

Moderator: Oleg Missikoff

Round table: Marco Montanari (Casa Santa Rosa), Julián Santano Moreno (Sapienza-Università di Roma), Maja Vujičić (University of Rijeka), Miriam Gonzalez Santolalla (URJC).

Conclusions